Thom,

Hope this email find you on a wonderful sunny afternoon here in Denver, wanted to get this to you today because I know Wednesdays are crazy with the Grandkids.

Hope all is well with you and yours!

Thanks for the electrician referral, Your son in law Zeb is great, he has been knocking it out all over town!

Tina knows how to do this, she just did hers. Her policy had everything we need to collect in full and keep this easy for you 2

Thanks Again for all your business and let me know if I can help your daughter in any way.

Sorry about her contractor but I can fix it if she needs, and help her contractor too if he needs!

Can you please forward this, we are getting ready to have a state appraiser come out and determine our price is fair, we need to see the policy. Nothing serious yet!

Please use "reply to all" to send this policy request, this must come from policy holder, ACP cannot do this for you,

To Whom It May Concern:

We, the policy holders, request for use by us and our contractor, a non-certified copy of our complete policy with copies of all referenced materials mentioned in the policy including but not limited to: exclusions schedules and endorsements.

We the homeowners would urge you our insurance carrier to make a appointment with our contractor for a 2 hour phone review to better understand where you underpaid my claim. Obviously we are requesting the policy to take further action as we know you have underpaid us.

Please note PER COLORADO LAW,

This policy copy is to be delivered via email in searchable PDF, WITHIN 3 DAYS pursuant to Colorado Statute 10-4-1108 See paragraph 10 attached

Please be sure the policy copy includes insured's name(s) and the property address and dates in effect that include this claim.

Please specifically highlight/reference/include the code upgrade, arbitration and invoking appraisal specifics, any lawsuit limitations and time limits.

Please email to alan@acpstormrepair.com and us, the insured at the email you have on record

We will consider all available options, including contacting the State of Colorado's DORA if a timely response is not received.

Thanks in advance for your cooperation

End of copy paste

Thank you for your help and

Thank You Very Much,

Alan C Podvin Jr
